

ALFRED BOX OF BOOKS

Patron Behavior Policy

The Alfred Box of Books Library supports the rights of individuals to:

- Receive friendly, courteous and respectful service without discrimination
- Have free and equal access to information
- Have a clean, comfortable environment to engage in reading, studying, using library materials, attending library programs and other activities associated with the public library.

Patrons are expected to respect each other, library personnel and property. No yelling, inappropriate language, destruction of property, disruptive or threatening behavior will be tolerated.

No loitering in the library or on library grounds.

Parents must supervise young children at all times. Children who are disruptive may be asked to leave.

In the case of destruction or defacement of library property, the offender will be required to pay for its replacement or repair.

Revised and Board Approved August 8, 2016